The conference is open to members and non-members of EWM. The meeting is held under the auspices of the presidency of the Deutsche Mathematiker-Vereinigung and supported by the Gesellschaft für Angewandte Mathematik und Mechanik.

Organizing Committee:

Polina Agranovich (Ukraine),
Christine Bessenrodt (Germany), chair,
Ina Kersten (Germany),
Olga Kounakovskaya (Russia),
Irene Pieper-Seier (Germany),
Ufuk Taneri (Turkey),
Tsou Sheung Tsun (United Kingdom).

Mathematical programme of the meeting:

- An interdisciplinary session on Mathematical modelling in theoretical physics, geophysics and biology, with speakers including
Helen Byrne (United Kingdom),
Cecilia Jarlskog (Sweden),
Rosa Maria Spitaleri (Italy).
- A session on Hilbert problems, including speakers
Marie-Françoise Roy (France),
Ruth Kellerhals (Switzerland).
- A session on Discrete mathematics and its applications, including speakers
Maylis Delest (France),
Ulrike Tillmann (United Kingdom).

In addition there will be discussions on the topic The ideal university, with speakers including

Britta Schinzel (Germany),

Renate Tobies (Germany).

A poster session will be organized, and all participants are encouraged to present their work in this way.

Accommodation: Participants will be housed at the conference center Kloster Loccum and will have their meals there. The cost of accommodation in double/single rooms with full board will be 85/90 DM per person per day.

Registration: The deadline for registration was May 31, 1999; since we may still find room for late participants contact us if you are interested in attending. Completed application forms should be sent preferably by email to the contact address given below. There will be an EWM registration fee of 40 DM (20 EURO) to be paid directly to EWM on arrival.

Participants are encouraged to investigate all possible sources of support for travel and living expenses since we cannot make any promises for financial support at this time (applications for support are still pending).

A website for the conference with up-to-date information (including travel information to Kloster Loccum and a registration form) has been created at
